

Knight Commander of the Temple

Knights Commander of the Temple are selected by the Deputies of each state, in accordance with the number allotted to each Grand Commandery, and their names forwarded to the College of Honors. Since this Honor is given for service to the Order, the Fraternity, the Community, or Mankind, it is left to the Deputy of each Jurisdiction to prioritize nominations within the guidelines given. The Deputy is also free to accept or reject any nomination for the KCT. The number of Knights Commander of the Temple selected for each Grand Commandery annually is determined as follows: five KCTs may be awarded annually to Grand Commanderies with fewer than 7,500 members. Ten KCTs may be awarded annually to Grand Commanderies with more than 7,500 members. The Sir Knights of Minnesota who have achieved this honor are:
