

COMPANION OF THE TEMPLE AWARD

An award offered from the Grand Encampment is the Companion of the Temple (CT) award. Companions of the Temple may be nominated in the same manner as the Knight Commander of the Temple (KCT) but are not subject to any numerical limitation. All CT nominations must be made through the College of Honors Minnesota Jurisdictional Deputy, SK Daniel Sherry, with no exceptions. As with the KCT, any member of the College of Honors may nominate any suitable person for the Companion of the Temple with the same guidelines as listed for the Knight Commander of the Temple award. However, the recipient need not be a Knight Templar or a Mason. Both men and women are eligible for the CT award. Anyone who requests this honor for themselves will be refused. Do not disclose the nomination to the nominee until it is approved. In a similar fashion as used for the KCT, all Companions of the Temple are to be invested with the honor, utilizing a format or ceremony designated by the deputy or one devised by the Grand Encampment. The jewel of a Companion of the Temple is shown above. It is to be pinned on the left side of a dress, blouse, or sweater for ladies and a blazer or suit coat for men. The design of this award has not changed, except that it may now be ordered with either a pin or magnet attachment. A date for the public ceremony will be set aside once a year with timely noticed so their family can be invited.
