The Crossed Swords resting upon the Holy Bible reminds us that we should be “strong in the Lord and in the power of his might,” that we should put on the whole armor of God, to be able to wrestle successfully with principalities, powers and spiritual wickedness in high places. I also present to you the Constitution and Statues of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the Untied States of America, the Constitution, Laws and Regulation of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Minnesota. You should familiarize yourself with them that you may rule your Grand Commandery with justice and moderation.

property and funds of the Grand Commandery that may be placed in his hands and rendering a just account of the same whenever called upon for that purpose. Grand Commander: Your station is on the left of the Grand Captain General. Your duty is to sound the Assembly, announce the approach and departure of the Grand Commander, post the sentinel and see that the Asylum is duly guarded. I charge you to be punctual in your attendance, and tireless in the discharge of your important duties. Though yours is among the lower offices of the Grand Commandery, it is by no means the least important.

Grand Commander: Eminent Grand Marshal, conduct the newly installed Grand Warder to his Chair. (Hand salute and be seated)

Grand Marshal: Right Eminent Grand Commander, I present Sir Knight _____, who has been appointed to the office of Grand Sentinel of Knights Templar of Minnesota, and who now declares himself ready for installation.

Grand Commander: Sir Knight _____, I congratulate you upon your accession to the office to which you were appointed. You will now be invested with the jewel of your office.

Grand Commander: I present you this sword. The sword is placed in the hands of the Sentinel to enable him to effectually guard against the approach of cowans and eavesdroppers and to suffer none to pass or repass but such as are qualified. It morally serves as a constant admonition to set a guard at the entrance of our thoughts, to place a watch at the door of our lips, to post a sentinel at the avenue of our actions, thereby excluding every unworthy thought, word, or deed. As applications of visitors for admission into the Commandery are generally made to the Sentinel. Your station will often present you to the observation of strangers. It is therefore essential that he who holds this office should be a frater temperate, affable and discreet, of good morals, steady habits and strict discipline. I am sure that a due regard for the honor and reputation of this institution will ever impel you to perform with fidelity the trust reposed in you.

Grand Commander: Eminent Grand Marshal, conduct the newly installed Grand Sentinel to his Chair. (Hand salute and be seated) are delegated to you by the Grand Commander and which will include your acting as instructors of the ritual, manual of ceremonies, and the statutes, rules and regulation of this Grand Commandery. If you are to perform your assignments in an efficient manner, it is necessary that you be thoroughly familiar with these various subjects; and to do so will require constant and continued study on your part. You will at all times be a representative of this Grand Commandery, and at others, also be called upon to act as the personal representative of the Grand Commander. I am sure that a due record for the honor and reputation of this institutions will ever impel you to preform with fidelity, the trust reposed in you to the end that this valiant and magnanimous order shall forever flourish.

Grand Commander: Eminent Grand Marshal, proclaim the installation of the officers of this Grand Commandery.

Grand Marshal: Commandery, Attention!
